TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and cannot salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents and it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggish-ness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults.
Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid, stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

"LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS"

DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a railroad crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing?

Maybe you think Mr. Merchant "Must everybody know my store, I don't have to advertise."

Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroad needs to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."

Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

Department Stores are a good example—they are always advertising—and yet are continually doing a big business.

Are you a few ads behind at Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all, to

Scurry County Association

This association has closed the greatest session in its history. It was the greatest in attendance. It was held with the Ira church and the weather was fine, the crops were late and the association being in fine shape the people came out. It was the greatest in spirit. From the first service at 11 o'clock Thursday when Brother H. A. Seranton preached a great discourse on the commission the spirit was fine. Brothers I. D.
Hull and A. D. Leach preached mountain top messages but the climax was reached when Bro. V. F. Walker preached from the fifteenth Psalm.
We had some real old fashioned shouting.

The discussions were of a very high order. There was no negative vote nor was there any propped up conditions to prevent one. It was unanimous because the Spirit was there.
The work was laid out on a different basis for next year. The order of business called for seventeen committees and then some parts of the work is left out. Next year we will have four reports with four general departments. They are: 1. Association-at Work. This to include everything pertaining to the association or the churches in the local work. 2. Missions, including all missions outside association missions. 3. Education, including all forms and parts of education. Religious literature will come under this head as it is a means of education. 4. Benevolence, including orphan's home, sanitarium, old ministers' relief. Other subheads will be added as the chairman of the committees see fit to put them on. This will make the work more flexible and more easily adapted to the growth of this work while at the same time it will be a saving in space in the minutes as well as to simplify the working of the association while in session.

Two fine cash offerings were taken.
One for old Ministers' relief and one for the orphan's home. The Ira church and its pastor, H. A. Seranton did the big thing all round in the matter of entertainment.

THE VOICE OF NOW:

It is the present, the today, the NOW in which we are interested.
Shakespeare wisely says:

"Tomorrow never yet On any living mortal rose or set."

It is the printed page which deals most intimately and with the greatest detail in the movements of the present. It is THE VOICE OF NOW proclaiming to the world the things that are happening today. The government of the United States is NOW gravely concerned in certain aspects of the war in Europe and has had thrust on it several serious international problems which are NOW in process of solution. The American farmer is NOW interested in this titanic struggle, for his interests are being affected by it today and will be tomorrow, and he wants to keep it close touch with it NOW.

EVERYBODY is interested in the cotton crop from the time of its planting to the days of its harvesting and marketing. They want to know "the NOW" in all that pertains to the great Southern staple; they want to know "the NOW" of all other agricultural markets, the latest in modern farming, the facts of the warehousing problem, and all else that pertains to the progress of the time in every theater of life.

The tens of thousands of men and women who know the Semi-Weekly Farm News know it is "THE VOICE OF NOW," telling in direct and positive tones of what is going on at home and abroad.

Now is the hour"

KNOW THY STATE

SILO BUILDING.
By Peter Radford.

The silo is a development agency and one in which both the commercial and agricultural interests of Texas can successfully cooperate in promoting.

If we are to place our cereal and forage crops on a stable and profitable basis, we must use all helpful devices and processes that multiply the value of the product after production and that enable us to turn waste products into profit. The economies easily possible in these two lines of endeavor are sufficient to make the Texas farmers home owners and wealth accumulators.

Feeding corn direct to stock by the old method, it is authoritatively estimated, adds approximately 20 per cent. to its value, and the farmers using silos will find that when corn is cut at the right time and is fed as ensilage, the efficiency of the feed is increased 40 per cent., making a net gain of 60 per cent. over the market value by feeding to livestock through the silo.

The silo is a manufacturing plant built on the farm, and therefore lends itself to co-operation of the commercial and agricultural interests, and the farmer, by operating it, gets the profit of both the producer and the manufacturer. The farmer does not want houses, fee silos, etc., but the commercial interests can materially assist him by making it easy to build silos.

This can be done by making available money for building them on easy terms and at a low rate of interest. It is opportunity, rather than favors, the farmer needs, but when a community has money to invest in promoting agriculture, it can put it to no better advantage than by applying it to encouraging the construction of silos. When an experienced, every dollar hits the mark and the merchant and banker spend their money where it does the most good, and they are helping those who help them.

A farmer can build a fair sized silo for two or three hundred dollars, and it will, under ordinary conditions, pay a dividend of 40 per cent. where it is run to its capacity. No better investment can be made than in the construction of a silo.

The silo will help on to maturity crops that are frequently caught by a drought or buried by hot winds, and there is scarcely a year in Texas in diversified farming that the silo will not rescue a crop from the delinquent forces of nature. As a stimulation in diversification alone, it is a valuable agency.

My own observation is that the silo is one of the greatest business educators in agriculture, and, like all great and far-reaching improvements, stamps its characteristics indelibly upon its human associates. It awakens the spirit of enterprise, develops commercial ingenuity, awakens the joy of ownership and will take away the parasitic habits of the tenant farmer and plant within him a desire to own a home. Every farmer in Texas should build a silo.
